Gadsbølle School

Gadsbølle School was originally built in the 50's but was closed down and bought by DSU in 2002 to be used as a venue for seminars and camps. Today the camp is owned by DUI - Leg og Virke.

The school has a traditional paved schoolyard with a couple of bench sets. Behind the school there is a green area - an old football field with a bonfire space and great opportunities for a game of soccer or softball.

The school is split into 3 sections. There are 5 classrooms, 1 dormitory and kitchen and dining room. In the basement there are two shared bathrooms with toilets. Additionally, there are toilets (boys and girls) in the yard and a single toilet at the kitchen. Between the 3 sections there is a small common area with sofas and
